

Innovation.

Innovation:
We want to put the latest advances to work in the communities we serve. These might be using computers networked with each other, infrared imaging, or even space age technology like global positioning!

Commitment to Community.

Commitment to Community:
We live among the people we serve. We are neighbors! Just like the people who live around you, we want to do all we can to be good neighbors and help our community.

Touchstone Energy®